LLOYD BANNINGS

LLOYD BANNINGS

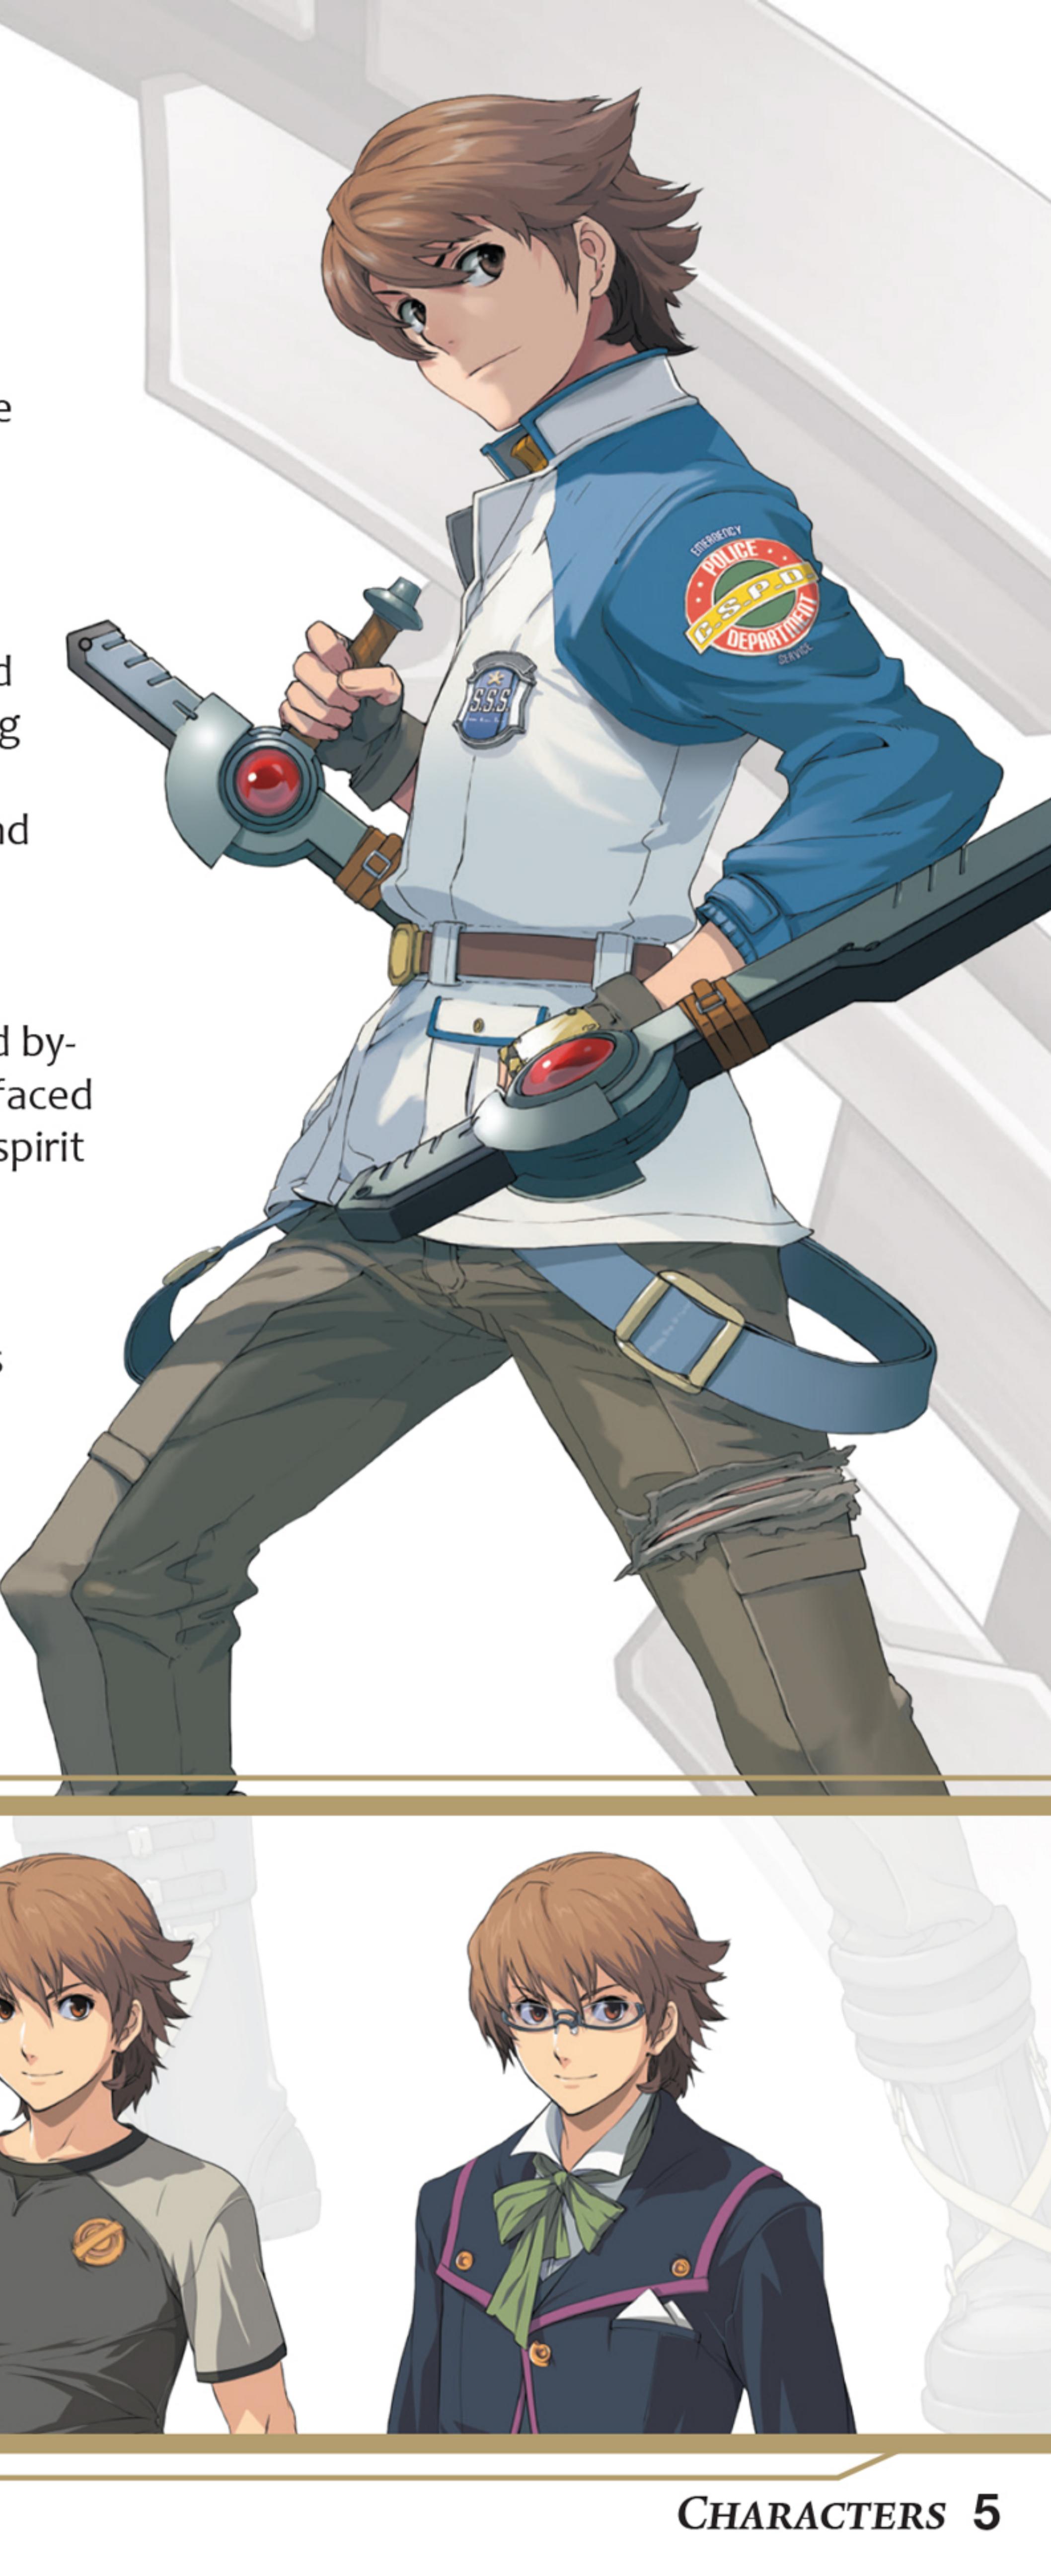

AGE: 18

A rookie detective in the Crossbell Police Department and the main character of this game.

After his brother—an accomplished detective—died in the line of duty, Lloyd left Crossbell and spent three years living abroad. Now, after attending the police academy, graduating with top marks, and becoming a detective himself, Lloyd has returned to his homeland.

While he's typically the most serious and by-the-books member of the group, when faced with threats or injustice, his passionate spirit will ignite.

His weapons of choice are a set of specialized police batons, also known as tonfa, which are made for suppressing dangerous threats.

ALTERNATE COSTUMES

ELIE MACDOWELL

AGE: 18

The granddaughter of Henry MacDowell, the mayor of Crossbell.

Crossbell's political situation has long been stuck in an endless war between the Imperial and Republican factions of legislators. Seeing the effects their bickering and plotting has had on the people of Crossbell, Elie decided to study abroad and returned to Crossbell to join the police force—following a different path than the rest of her family.

Friendly and polite, Elie's personality is what one might expect from a typical honors student, but she also has a daring side to her, and enjoys practicing her marksmanship in her free time.

ALTERNATE COSTUMES

RANDY ORLANDO

AGE: 21

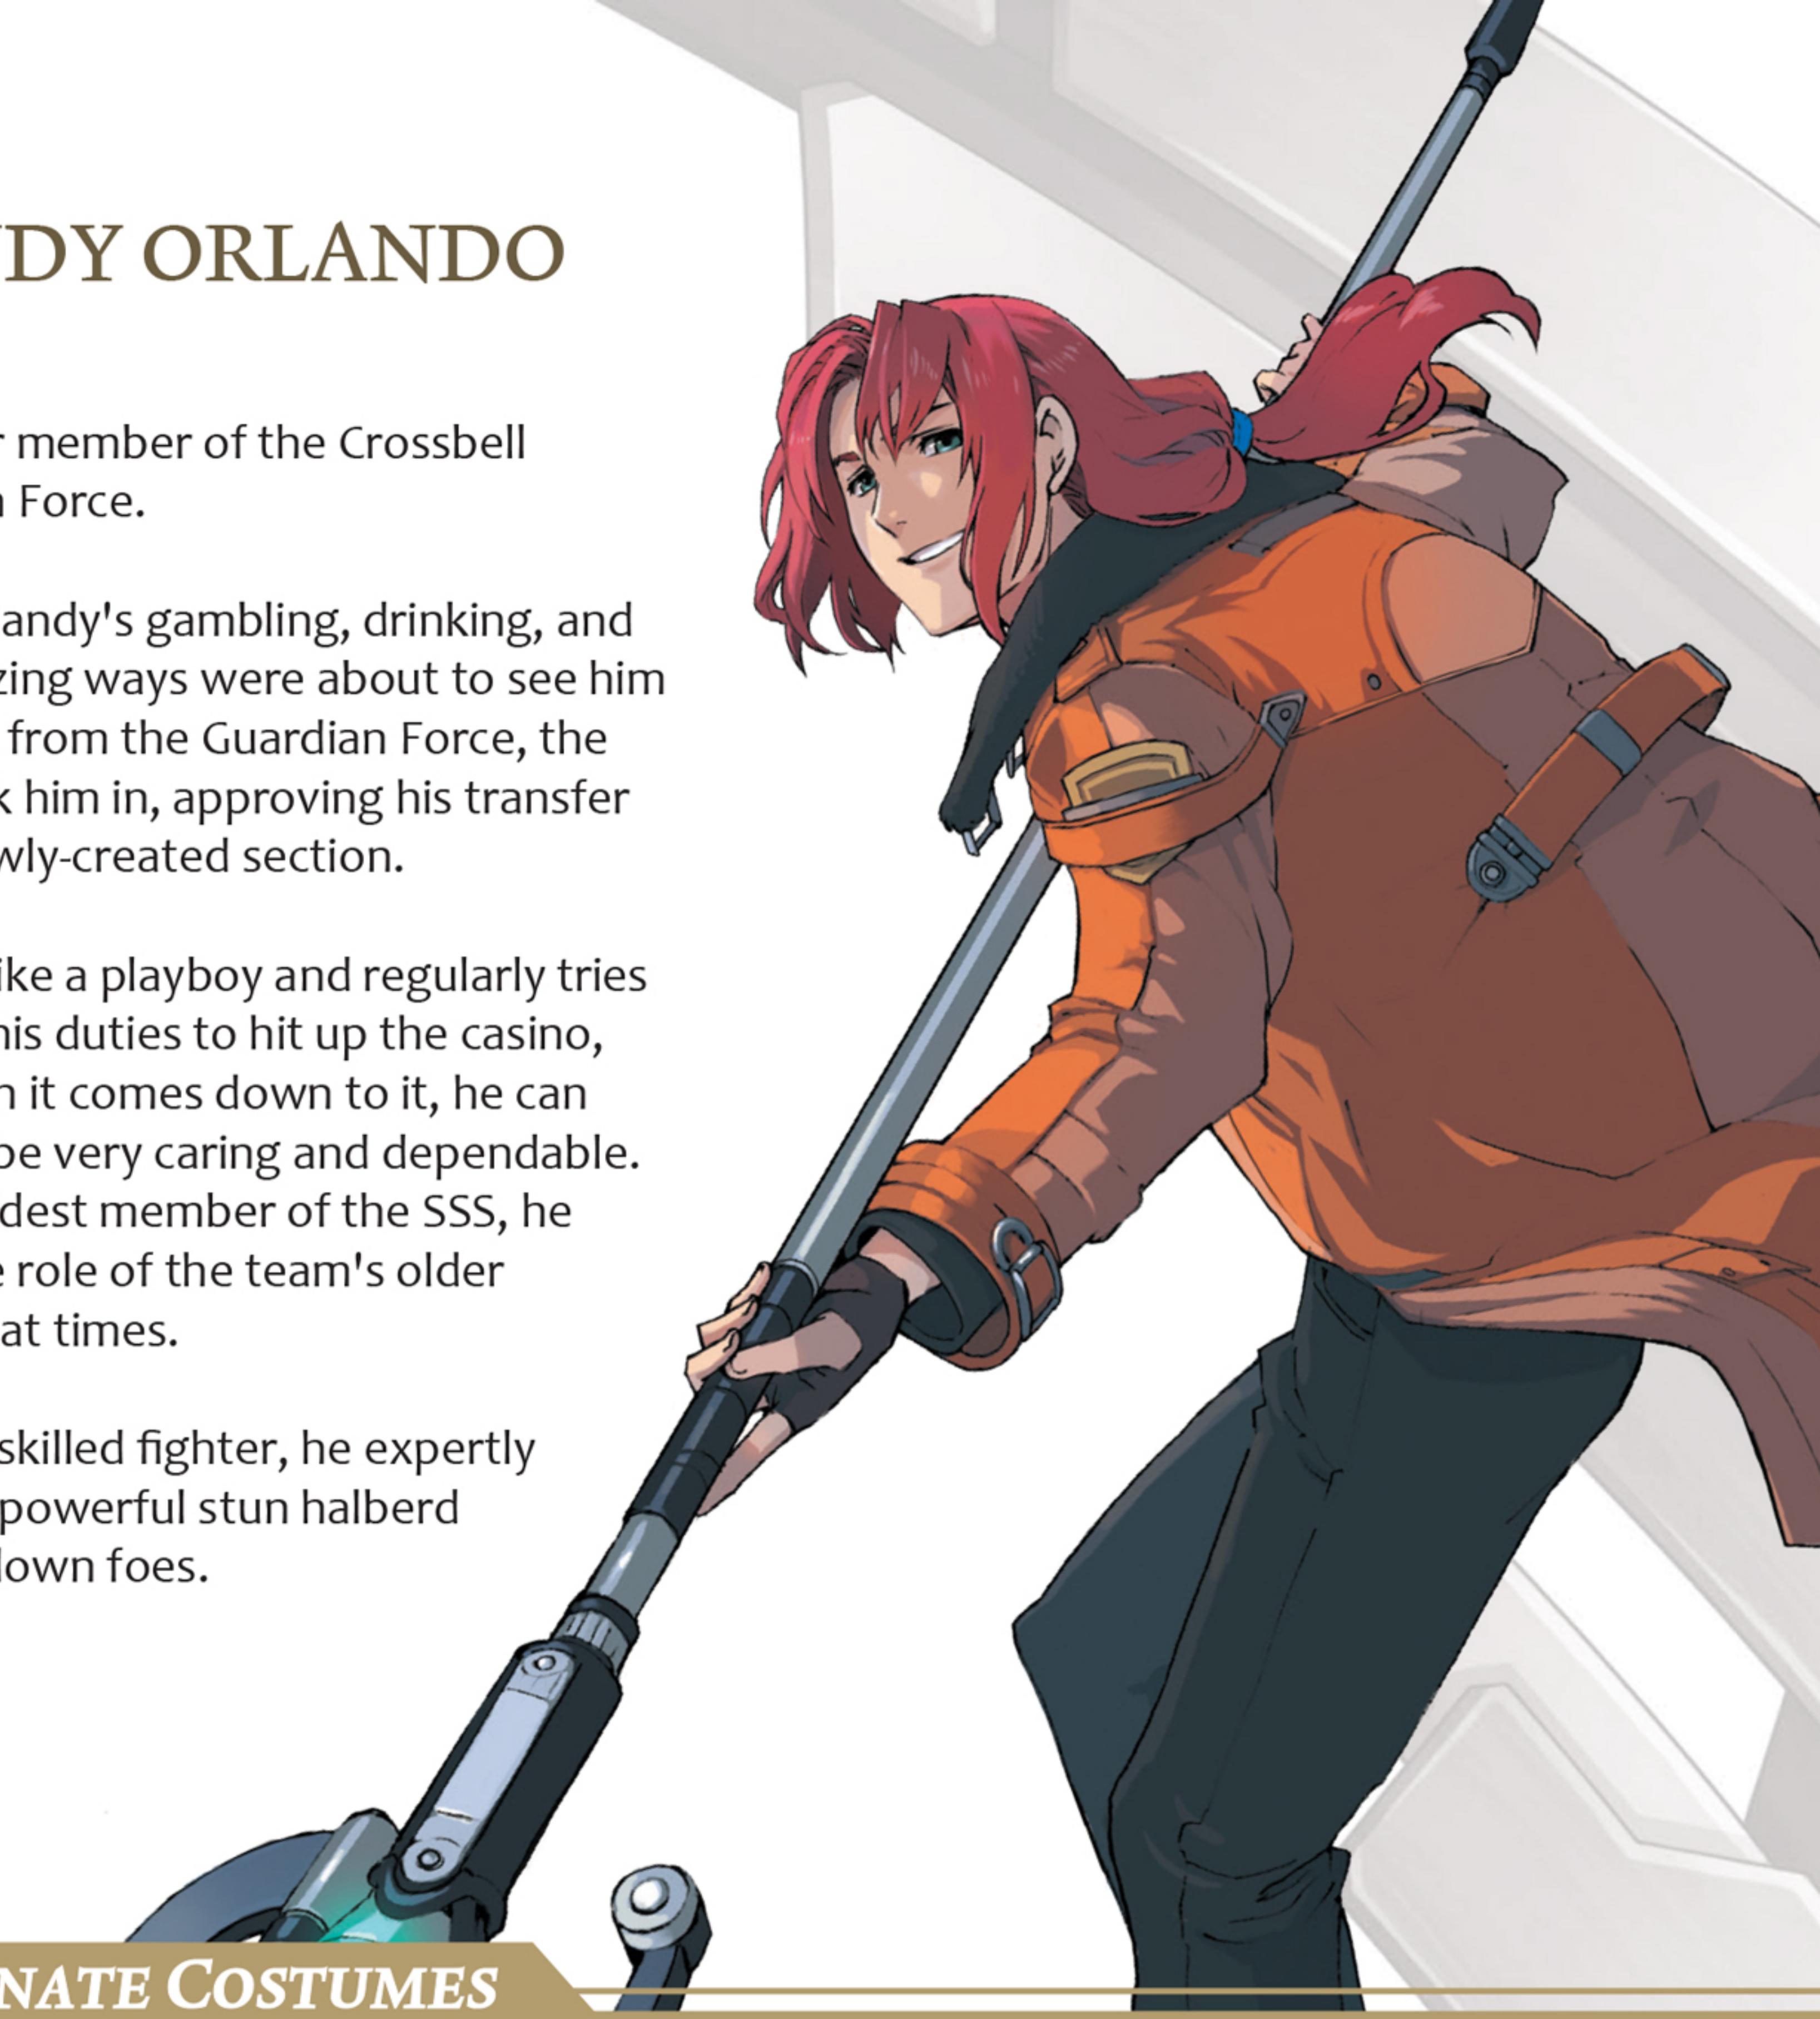

A former member of the Crossbell Guardian Force.

Just as Randy's gambling, drinking, and womanizing ways were about to see him expelled from the Guardian Force, the CPD took him in, approving his transfer to its newly-created section.

He acts like a playboy and regularly tries to shirk his duties to hit up the casino, but when it comes down to it, he can actually be very caring and dependable. As the eldest member of the SSS, he plays the role of the team's older brother at times.

A highly skilled fighter, he expertly wields a powerful stun halberd to take down foes.

ALTERNATE COSTUMES

TIO PLATO

AGE: 14

A girl who works for the Epstein Foundation, one of the continent's leading technological institutes.

Tio was assigned to the CPD on a temporary basis as part of her task of field testing the orbal staff, a newly-developed weapon from the foundation. Very intelligent and technologically savvy, she is a frequent source of information for the other SSS members.

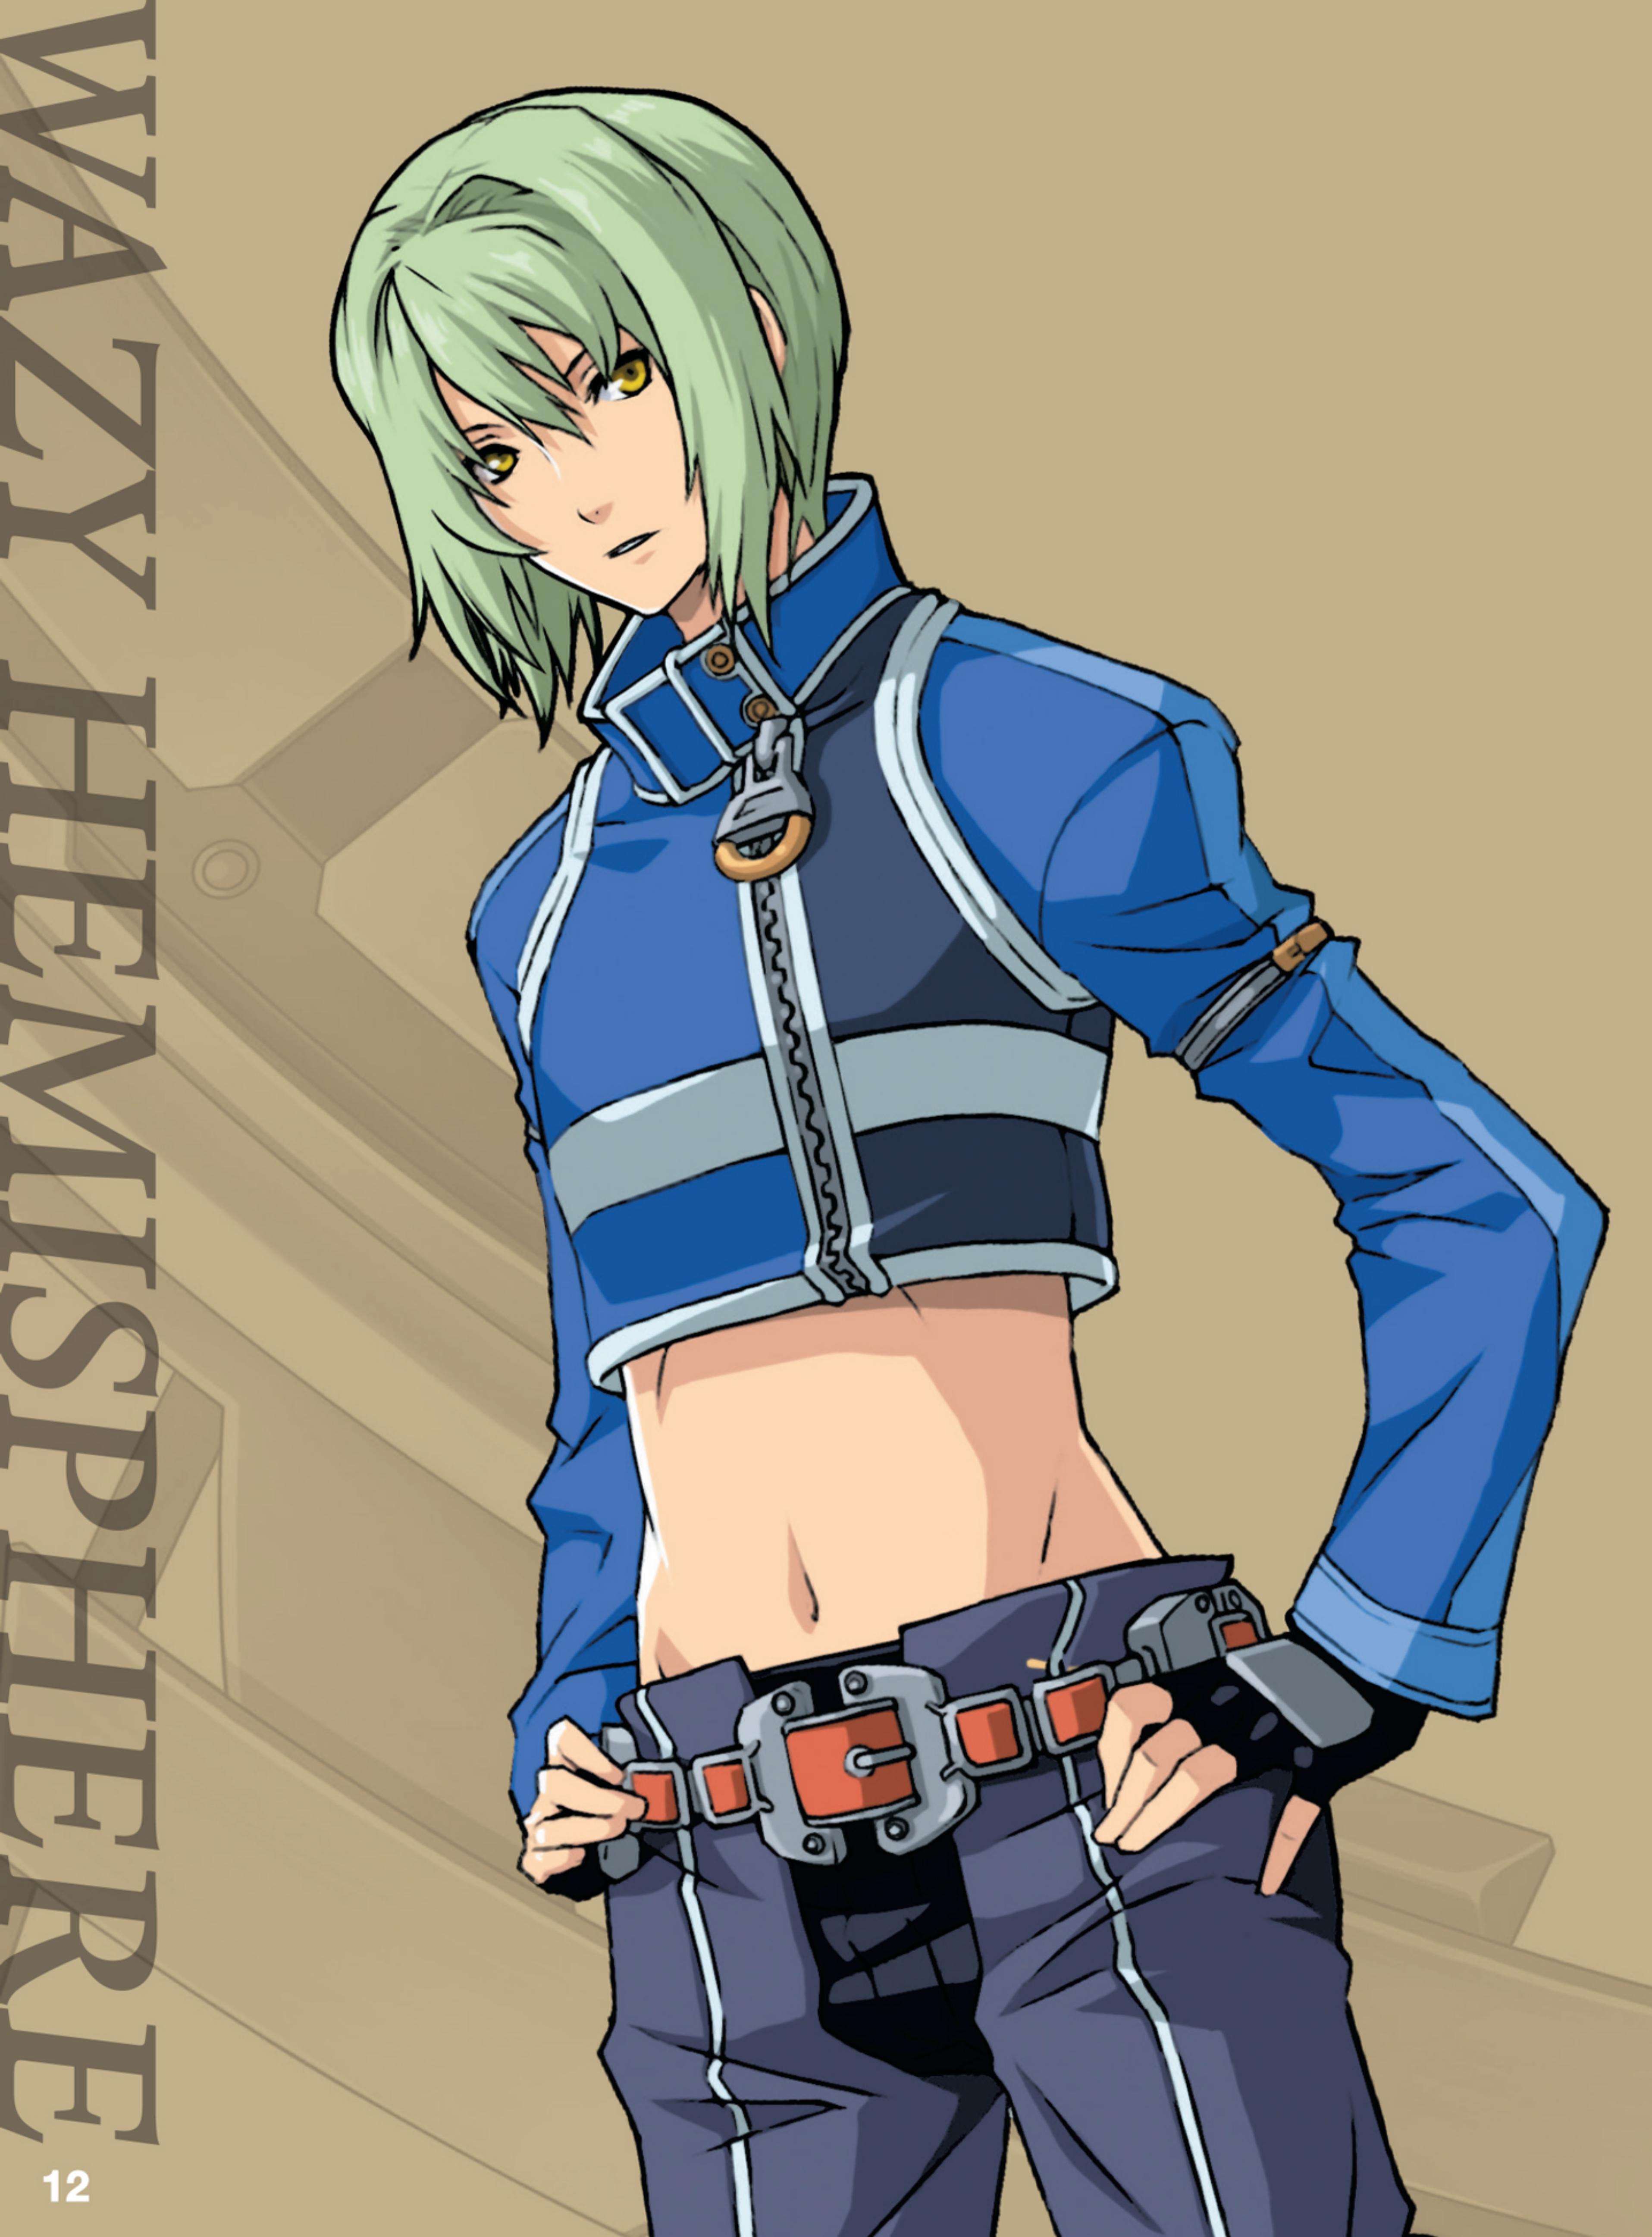

Her stiff manner of speech and coolheaded personality make her seem standoffish, giving the impression she doesn't like interacting with people. However, the truth is that she simply struggles to express herself.

The orbal staff she uses in battle can deal powerful magical damage and even reconfigure itself into different forms, depending on its current mode.

ALTERNATE COSTUMES

WAZY HEMISPHERE

AGE: 17

A mysterious young man whose beautiful face hides a cool, yet mischievous personality.

Wazy is the leader of a gang called the Testaments. Its members claim to be intellectuals, but at the end of the day, they're all still delinquents. All of them having been drawn to Wazy's strong charisma, they revere him as their leader and follow his every order.

A skilled martial artist, Wazy makes use of his light frame and quick footwork to excel in aerial combat.

ALTERNATE COSTUMES

NOEL SEEKER

AGE: 17

A member of the Crossbell Guardian Force, an organization in charge of the defense of Crossbell State.

Due to her strong combat skills and her ability to take initiative, Noel rose through the CGF's ranks to attain the position of Sergeant Major at an especially young age.

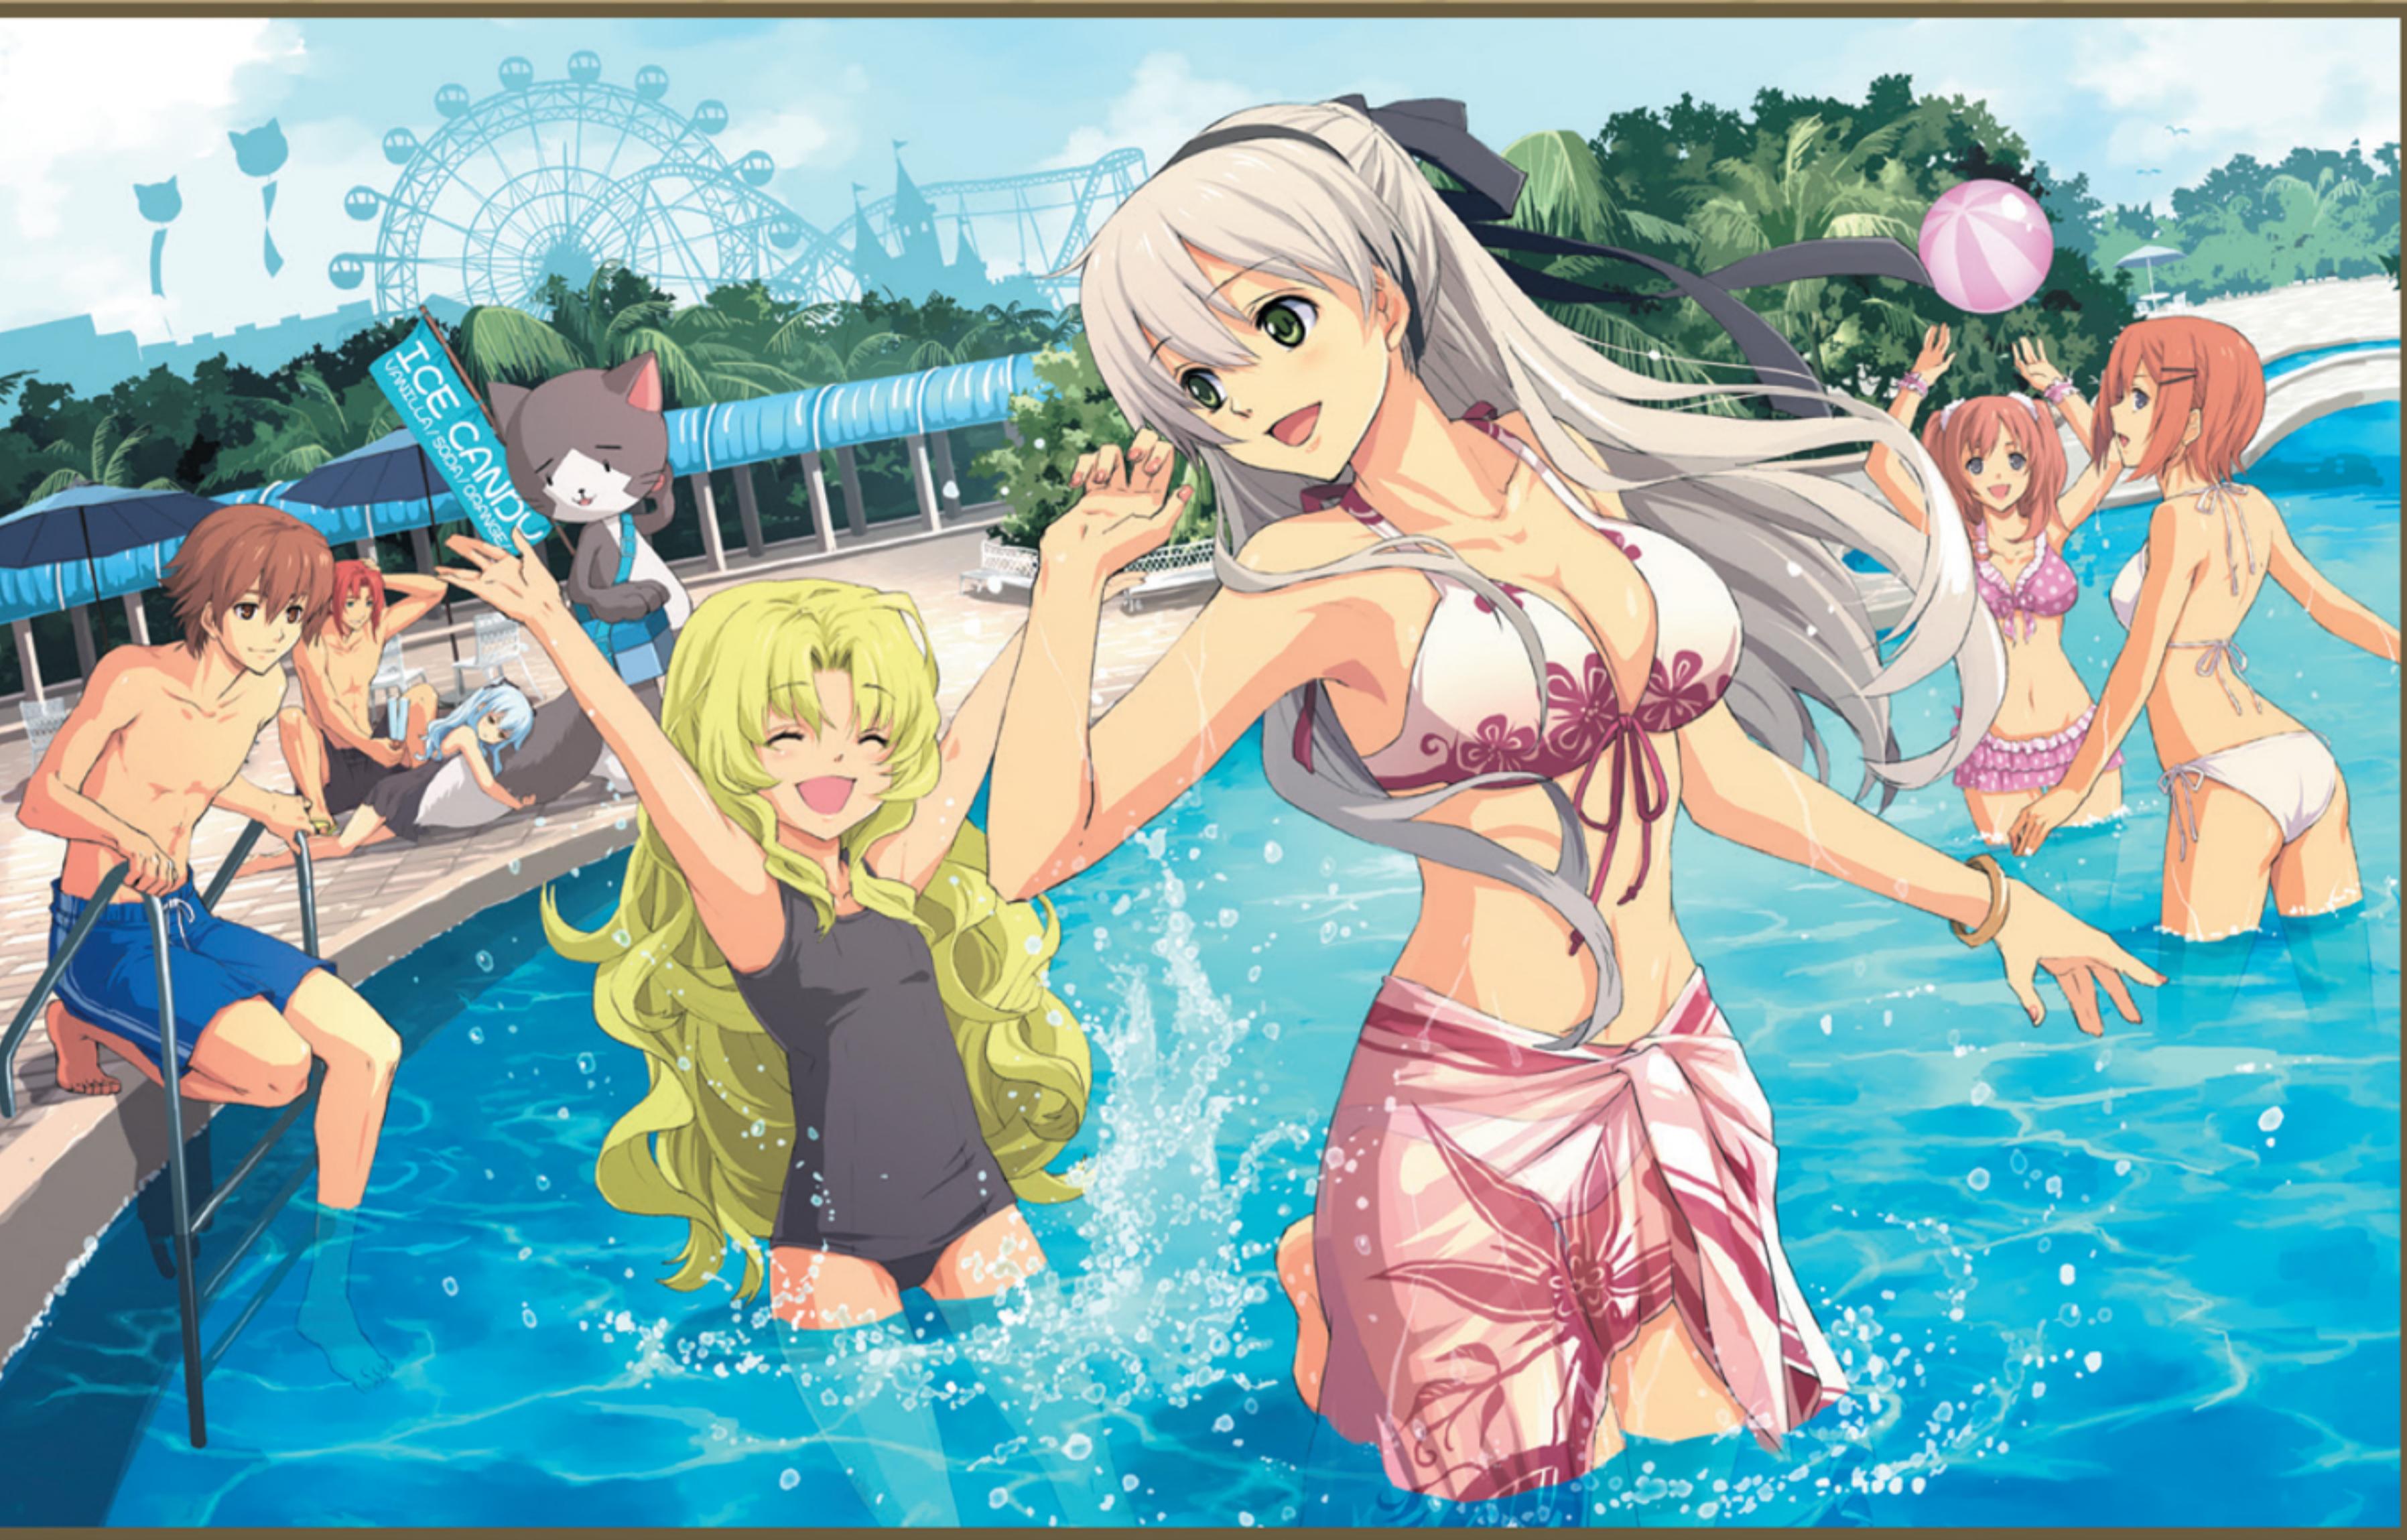

A certain incident brings her and the SSS together, and she becomes a frequent collaborator with them after that point.

She specializes in wielding dual submachine guns, and is also skilled at driving the CGF's new armored cars.
